Gas & Weight Tax Hike Is KO'd, Revived

LANSING (AP) — A $61-million package designed to raise gasoline and weight taxes for virtually all motor vehicles suffered a setback in the House Friday. But it was to be reconsidered today in a rare Saturday session.

The five-bill package, which the Senate passed last April, stalled when the House voted 46-48 against the measure to increase the annual registration fee for autos and other vehicles.

The bill is designed to raise $24 million a year. It would charge most autos a registration fee of 35 cents per 100 pounds, with a $15 annual minimum.

Under the current fee of 35 cents per 100 pounds, a 4,000-pound luxury car would be taxed at $14, while a 1,600-pound economy model would be charged only $6.40.

Other parts of the "good roads" package, designed to raise more money for special restricted highway funds, would.

—Boost the tax on gasoline and other motor fuels by one cent per gallon, raising an estimated $33 million.

—Give cities and the State Waterways Fund larger shares of the gasoline tax.

Change the formula for computing the weight tax on trucks, with the biggest rigs getting the highest fee increases.

An amendment to the package raising the gasoline tax another quarter-cent to pay for Mackinac Bridge refinancing was to be considered by the House today. The Senate has defeated a similar amendment.

Gasoline taxes in Michigan were last raised in 1955.

The waterways fund now gets 1/2 per cent of state gasoline levies. That share would be tripled if the package passes.

Four of the five bills, including the weight tax measure defeated Friday, are designed to stand as a unit. Each contains a provision that it will not become law unless the other three are passed.

Marines Even Score; Kill 506

SAIGON (AP) — Infantry battles and small arms duels along the demilitarized zone over the last week have killed 536 Communist soldiers, the U.S. Command said today.

U.S. Marines, badly battered by enemy artillery and ground assault forces early in the week, claimed overwhelming victory today as they announced that 506 Communists were killed in the past two days, mostly by air and artillery strikes. Marine losses for this period were listed as 17 dead and 46 wounded.

For the whole week, the Marines lost 134 dead, 631 wounded and 5 missing. Many of the reports of enemy dead were based on sightings from the air.

In ground action Friday a Marine unit that had lost 12 dead and 30 wounded to North Vietnamese artillery fire Thursday more than evened the score when it caught 200 North Vietnamese in the open northeast of Con Thien.

After the Leathernecks boxed the enemy troops in a narrow draw, blistering air strikes and artillery were called in. A Marine spokesman said 150 enemy bodies were counted after the smoke cleared. No Marines were reported killed in the clash.

Out in the South China Sea hope of recovering alive Maj. Gen. William J. Crumm and five others lost after two B-52s collided grew dimmer. Search vessels picked up pieces of debris from the two huge Stratofortresses but reported no sign of the missing crewmen. Thirteen crewmen were scooped out of the sea soon after the collision Friday.

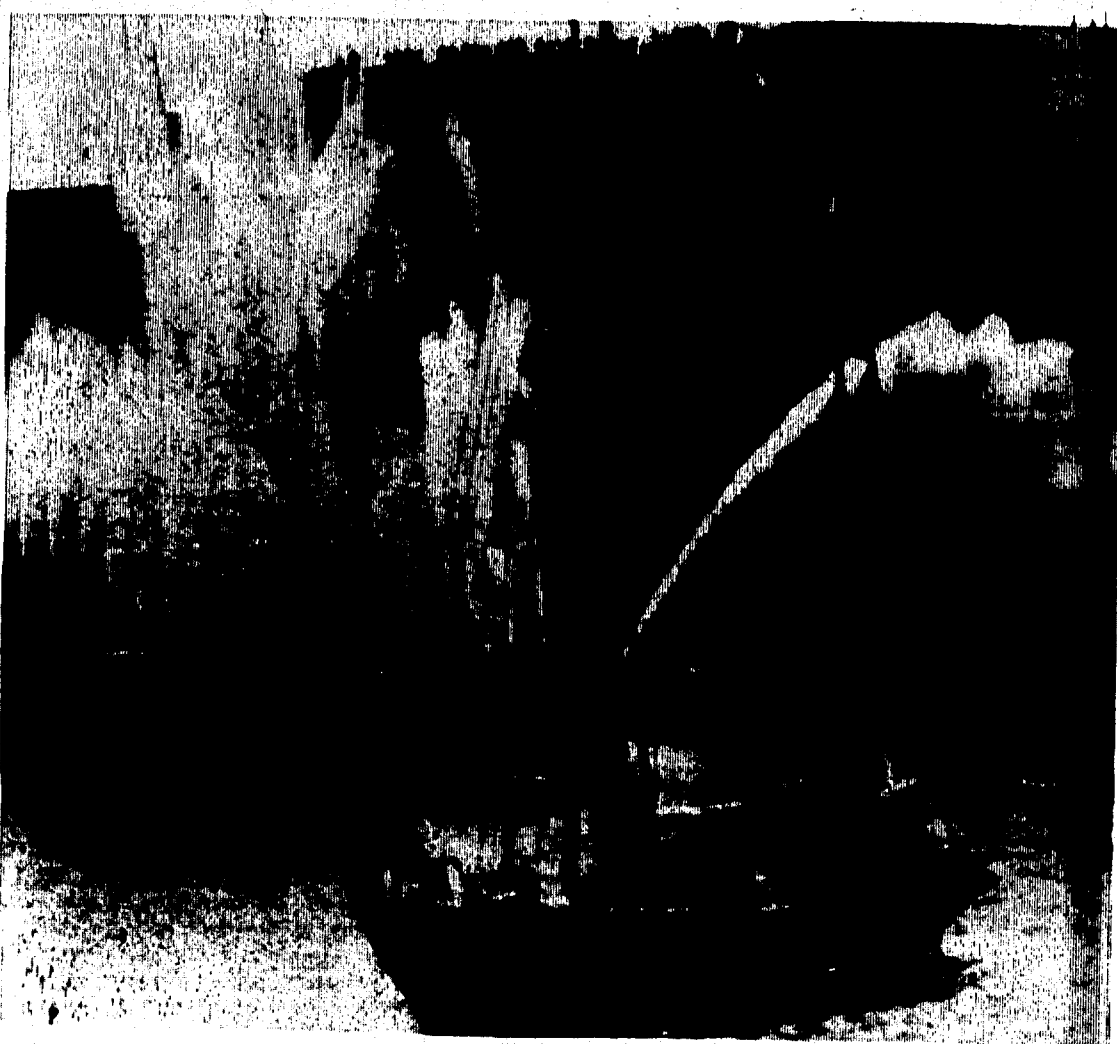

Attack Snails To End Bather Itch

LANSING (AP) — The State Water Resources Commission is out to oust swimmers' itch-causing creatures from Michigan waters.

Parasites which move from snails and birds to people have become the bane of swimmers.

In hope of controlling the snail population, the Water Resources Commission plans serial application of an experimental molluscicide on four plots in Houghton Lake and Lake Mitchell.

The treatments are planned for Tuesday, weather permitting, the commission says.

War Critics In House Increasing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Long-muted House voices are beginning to be raised in support of some alternative to the administration's Vietnam war policy.

Until recently open criticism was limited to a handful of the 435 members.

A few weeks ago, however, 60 Democrats, all staunch supporters of President Johnson, cautiously raised the possibility of a renewed attempt to bring the United Nations into an effort for a peaceful settlement.

Now, a group of liberal Republicans has come up with a new proposal they say will improve chances for a negotiated settlement with minimum military risk.

Conference Monday

The eight Republicans joining in the proposal have scheduled a news conference Monday to make it public. None is identified with the GOP leadership, which has maintained a public show of support for Johnson's policy.

While they declined to disclose details of their plan before the news conference, the eight said it was designed "to reopen the domestic dialogue on United States policy in Vietnam, which has in recent months been curtailed through a growing belief that any form of dissent or debate in wartime is unworthy."

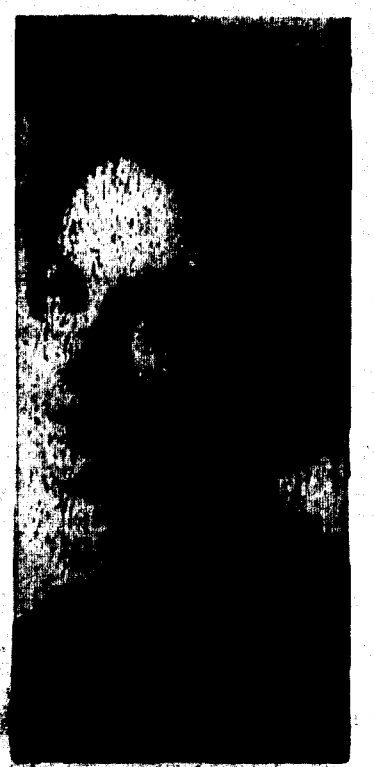

Traffic Mishaps Claim Four Lives

At least four persons died on Michigan highways in the early hours of the weekend. A 3-year-old girl was among the victims.

The Associated Press count of traffic deaths began at 6 p.m. Friday and ends at midnight Sunday.

Limit War

They said they also hoped their plan would remind "the policy-maker and the critic alike that Vietnam is still a limited war in every sense of that term and that there is an immense difference between the diplomacy of limited war and the diplomacy of total war."

The eight GOP members making the statement were Reps. F. Bradford Morse, Mass.; John R. Dent, Pa.; Marvin L. Esch, Mich.; Frank J. Horton, N.Y.; Charles M. Mathias Jr., Md.; Charles A. Mosher, Ohio; Richard S. Schweiker, Pa.; and Robert T. Stafford, Vt.

First Alternative

Dent, Esch and Morse are freshmen who already have shown independence in voting against GOP leadership positions. The other six are identified with an informal House group that has tried since the 1964 election to give the Republican party a more liberal image.

Arabs-Israelis Battle At Suez

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Egyptian and Israeli forces battled in the air and on the ground along the Suez Canal today in what appeared to be the most serious clash between them since the six-day Arab-Israeli war.

Radio Cairo said the Egyptian government demanded an urgent session of the U.N. Security Council in New York to deal with what it called "the new aggression."

The Egyptian broadcast said Israeli air force jets attacked Egyptian positions in Port Said and Port Fuad at the Mediterranean entrance to the Suez Canal and that Egyptian planes engaged them in air combat. It claimed Israeli forces were trying to move up the eastern bank of the canal in a drive to seize Port Fuad.

Israel claimed that Israeli jets were strafing Egyptian artillery which had opened fire on the Israeli occupation forces from the west bank of the canal. It said the fighting was along several miles of the canal's banks. Israeli tanks on the east bank were hit by the Egyptian artillery fire, a Tel Aviv communique said.

Income Tax Law Foes May Seek Court Rule

LANSING (AP) — Court action apparently is the next step for those who question the constitutionality of Michigan's new state income tax bill, despite discouraging news from the attorney general.

In answer to questions by Sen. George Kuhn, R-Birmingham, Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley said Friday that he believes the courts will uphold the bill and will rule that it is not subject to a popular referendum.

Kuhn, who individually sought Kelley's opinion and also sponsored a resolution Friday asking the Senate to seek an opinion, has charged that the bill seeks

Rebels Defeated

BRUSSELS, Belgium — Congolese government forces have defeated a band of mercenaries and rebels in Bukavu, Kisangani and Kinshasa, and the fighting there is over, the Congolese radio claimed today.

It said President Joseph D. Mobutu would address the nation by radio later today.

Tshombe was kidnapped and flown to Algeria June 30 and authorities are considering a request for his extradition to the Congo, which sentenced him to death for treason while he was living in exile in Spain.

Diplomats at the United Nations predicted if Tshombe is returned to the Congo and executed, the former Belgian colony's internal troubles would mushroom.

Idzumbur told the council that white mercenaries had fled from fighting in Kisangani, formerly Stanleyville, in their two planes and another stolen from the Congolese National Airlines.

There was no word, though, on landing of two of the planes. A Rhodesian government spokesman said a plane which landed at Kariba had been pounded and the European white and African wounded aboard were receiving medical attention.

A member of the Rhodesian air force staff said 12 injured men from the Congo were flown from Kariba to Salisbury, the capital, for treatment at the air force hospital. He would not say how seriously hurt the men were.

Rhodesia is run by a white minority government which

Kuhn said his resolution, signed by 21 Republicans and Democrats, was not an attempt to kill the tax bill but was "an attempt to clarify the constitutionality of the bill."

"I'm for an income tax if it's properly instituted and legal and the people agree on it," he said but added that he wanted "to make sure we've got a tax law that's clean as a hound's tooth legally."

The resolution was not designed to initiate a petition drive against the bill, Kuhn said, adding that "I do think that if there are people who want a petition drive, then they should have that right."

School Aid Increased

LANSING (AP) — A $39 million increase in state aid to public schools, approved by the House Friday, faced probable hostility in the budget-cutting Senate today.

House Republicans held firm Friday, keeping the school aid boost at their proposed 5 per cent level and beating off attempts to increase the size of their $255.7 million higher education appropriation bill.

But Rep. Clifford Smart, R-Walled Lake, House Education Committee chairman and sponsor of the 5 per cent aid increase, said its passage apparently depended on Senate approval of a $34 million cigarette tax increase.

Senate spokesmen said that was not likely, at least until autumn. In other capital developments:

—Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley told Sen. George Kuhn, R-Birmingham, that he believes courts will uphold Michigan's new income tax bill and will rule that it is not subject to a popular referendum. Kuhn had asked Kelley for his opinion on the issue and had sponsored a resolution asking the Senate to request such an opinion.

—The Senate returned to committee for further study a House resolution that would ask the federal Transportation Department to put Michigan in the Central Time Zone.

The Senate version of the higher education bill would spend only $240 million.

Sen. Frank Beale, R-St. Clair, Senate Appropriations Committee chairman, said he regarded $1.1 billion as the spending ceiling for fiscal 1967-68.

If the $39 million in new school aid is included in that figure, $39 million will have to be cut somewhere else, he indicated.

Congo Claims Tshombe Plotted Coup By Rebels

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — As a planeload of wounded whites and Africans flew out of the fighting area in the Congo, the Congolese government claimed Friday that the strife stemmed from an attempted coup plotted from Spain by ex-Premier Moise Tshombe.

The arrival of the plane at Kariba, Rhodesia, was the first visible evidence from the fighting, on which previous reports had come primarily from foreign capitals.

Congolese Ambassador Theodore Idzumbur told the U.N. Security Council that Tshombe and aides in Spain were trying to carry out a lot of sabotage, provocation of mutinies in the Congolese army and elimination of President Joseph D. Mobutu.

Idzumbur said the plane was flown to Kariba by a Rhodesian pilot and that the plane was carrying a number of Belgian and French nationals as agents of Tshombe who had made trips from Portuguese Angola to the Congo either for sabotage or to work with Tshombe sympathizers.

The Security Council adjourned until Monday while the nonpermanent members drafted a resolution appealing to all countries to bar recruitment of mercenaries for the Congo.

Mobutu sent a message asking President Johnson for military aid.

Weapons Curb Hopes Of U.S. Cooled By Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rapid Soviet delivery of fighter planes, tanks and other modern arms to Arab nations during the past month has sharply discouraged Johnson administration hopes of negotiating an international agreement to limit arms levels in the Middle East.

U.S. officials say they have not given up all hope of discussing this problem with the Soviet government but that in the light of Soviet actions since the Arab-Israeli war ended last month the prospect does not look very promising.

The issue is understood to be one on which President Johnson received no encouraging indications from Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin during their conferences at Glassboro, N.J.

U.S. officials say Kosygin followed privately the same hard line on the Middle East crisis which he took publicly at the United Nations.

Nevertheless, administration officials found some reason for post-Glassboro hope because there are Arab-Israeli issues on which the United States and Soviet Union were shown to have somewhat similar positions.

Kosygin made clear to the President—as he said publicly—that the Soviet government recognizes the existence of the state of Israel. The Arab nations do not recognize Israel's right to exist.

U.S. officials also concluded from the Glassboro talks that the Soviet Union would have no problem working for an end to the state of war which has existed between Israel and its Arab neighbors since Israel was established in 1948.

Neither, it was said, would the Soviets object to finding some workable solution for the problem of more than a million Arab refugees from Israel.

It was also indicated at Glassboro that Moscow would go along with some kind of arrangement to assure international access to waterways in the area, apparently referring to both the Suez Canal and the Gulf of Aqaba.

The two major U.S.-Soviet problems on the Middle East are Moscow's new supply of arms to the Arabs—with no sign as to where it will end—and Soviet insistence that Israeli forces withdraw from conquered Arab territory in advance of a general peace settlement.

Jerusalem Is Thorn

Officials here reaffirmed the U.S. position that arrangements for withdrawal must be part of a peace settlement. The most serious problem foreseen by Washington authorities is the ultimate disposition of the part of Jerusalem captured from Jordan by Israeli during the week-long conflict that began June 5.

Israeli leaders have said they intend to hold onto the Old City though they would recognize the interests of religious groups in its holy places.

Bid For Cherries: 18-Cents A Pound

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Nine processing firms in southwestern Michigan have bid a record 18-cents a pound for red tart cherries for a crop said to be the lightest in 22 years.

The prices were announced by the Michigan Agricultural Cooperative Marketing Association, the Farm Bureau agency taking over for the Great Lakes Cherry Producers Marketing Cooperative Inc., which closed this year.

Premium Books Now Available

The 1967 Upper Peninsula State Fair Premium Books are now available, reports Cliff Perras, secretary-manager of the Fair, who said the new book has been completely revised and upgraded.

It includes a full list of individual premium awards for 16 different Fair departments, plus rules and regulations for exhibitors and concessionaires. A zoned mileage map is featured, showing distances from Upper Peninsula cities and towns to Escanaba and the Fairgrounds.

"This map will be helpful to exhibitors who, for the first time this year, will receive mileage for individual animals on exhibit," said Perras.

Schedules of program activities, general information, special events and gate prices are included, plus an index to the contents of the 106-page book. Entry blanks printed in the Premium Book are those for: Queen Contest, Battle of the Bands Contest and High D. H. I. A. or D. H. I. R. Cow.

Insert entry blanks for cattle, sheep, swine and horses are in the book, and extra entry blanks are available at the State Fair office in Escanaba. Exhibitors in the cattle, sheep, swine and horse departments are reminded of the July 28 entry deadline.

Fair dates are Aug. 15 through 20 this year, with a pre-entry date Monday, Aug. 14, and an advance entry day Sunday, Aug. 13 for those exhibitors unable to enter on Monday.

Numerous changes have been made in the book and exhibitors will find higher premiums will be paid in many of the divisions this year. The Premium Book cover, attractive in three colors, is the design selected as winner in the 1967 Premium Book cover contest sponsored by the Bancroft Dairy of Marquette. Bonnie Moen, winner of the contest, is pictured on the inside front cover, along with a profile story.

Premium books are being mailed to exhibitors, and are also available by contacting Perras at the Fair office in Escanaba.

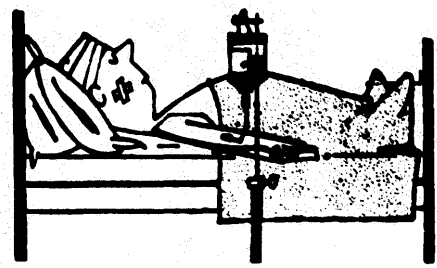

Tech Studying Portage Lake

HOUGHTON—Limnology—fresh water oceanography—research and teaching has been expanded at Michigan Tech this summer with the addition of a modern version of Huck Finn's raft.

The raft has a 110-volt generator and instruments for continuous recording of physical and chemical parameters of a lake.

Research will see how the lake has changed since the Hancock sewage plant started operating and analyzing the water for its chemical composition, bacterial count, bottom organisms and plankton (plant and animal life found floating in the water).

GIVE BLOOD THIS SUMMER

Call For Blood:

Red Cross Notes Need For Donors

There is rising need for blood in Delta County, reports the local Red Cross Chapter in connection with the blood procurement clinic to be held in the county next week.

The schedule for the three-day visit is:

Tuesday, July 11—Gladstone James T. Jones School 3 to 7 p. m.

Wednesday, July 12—Teamsters Hall in Escanaba, 2:30 to 7:30 p. m.

Thursday, July 13—Teamsters Hall, Escanaba, 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Delta County has the responsibility to provide 307 units at a time when blood production decreases because so many donors are on vacation or occupied in leisure summertime pursuits.

Unhappily, it is also a time when the need for blood rises because of the number of highway accidents and injuries.

The Red Cross notes that more people have been killed and injured in traffic accidents than on all the battlefields this country ever fought on.

Reserves of blood are at a very low ebb and it will require a concerted effort on the part of Delta County residents to restore the blood bank to the level that will assure availability of blood to those who may need a transfusion.

The Red Cross suggests that giving a unit of blood now will be like "taking out a little vacation insurance."

On Wednesday of the scheduled procurement clinic AB-type blood is needed for a Wisconsin man who is to have heart surgery. Fifteen units are required and Escanaba is asked to supply at least one-third of this amount.

AB- is the most rare of the basic blood types and 15 units will not be easy to collect at a summer visit, the Red Cross said. AB- donors who have not been contacted are asked to report so that the success of the heart surgery can be assured from the standpoint of blood supply.

Provo Is Named CNW President

Larry S. Provo, 40, executive vice president of the Chicago and North Western Railway, Thursday was elected president by the railway company's board of directors.

Ben W. Heineman, former president, will continue as chairman and chief executive officer of the railroad.

Provo has been an officer of the North Western for 11 years, and has worked closely with Heineman in establishment and implementation of policies directed toward improvement of the railway company and its operations. He started in 1954 when, at the age of 27, he was elected vice president and comptroller of the Minneapolis & St. Louis Railway Co. Two years later he accepted a similar position on the North Western.

A native of Minneapolis, Provo was graduated with distinction in business administration from the University of Minnesota in 1948.

Jackson Sets News Guideline

JACKSON (AP)—The dissemination of some types of news will be restricted to authorized city personnel, the Jackson city manager has announced.

A statement issued by Paul White, city manager, said the guidelines will be used primarily in cases of "crimes of a serious nature, general alarm fires, multiple fatality accidents, major disasters and civil disorders."

A "coordinator of news information" will be sent to police headquarters at such times, the statement said, and will serve as a clearinghouse for all news. Police and other officials "should be divorced from handling the burden of supplying news information," the statement said.

The statement said at times certain information should be restricted, but that "the reasons for such requests will be made clear to all reporters. It will then be the individual responsibility of the news reporters to withhold dissemination of such information until clearance is given by the authorities."

Hills A. Johnson, city editor of the Jackson Citizen Patriot, said the guidelines were a result of a meeting between all news media and the city. "The purpose," he said, "is to have responsible people and responsible statements."

Johnson said the paper felt the rules were reasonable and workable.

Dever Translates Escanaba As Meaning "At Skinny's"

The name "Escanaba" has historically been translated as meaning "Flat Rock" and identified with the Flat Rock (Escanaba) River. In more recent years the translation "Land of the Red Buck," has been offered as a more romantic alternative, largely at the suggestion of the late Harold Lindsay, an able enterpriser more noted for his ability to lead the public into pleasant adventures than for his scholarship in Indian languages.

Now comes Harry Dever of Cedarville, whose wife is an Ottawa, and who says that the historians are all wet about Jean Nicolet; that he didn't come into Lake Michigan on his exploration west into the Great Lakes basin in 1634, but into Lake Superior.

In the course of correspondence with the Press on this article "The Nicolet Myth" in the Michigan History Magazine, Dever wrote:

About eight years ago I wrote to the Delta County Historical Society, giving them what I believe is the correct translation of Escanaba, but I didn't get a reply.

The accepted translation seems to be "Land of the Red Buck," which is untenable. As many Indian words became obsolete, Indian-speakers are frequently unable to translate many place and personal names. The word "nahbay" for "man" is now unknown to all of the Chippewa and Ojibwas I know, though it persists in Cree.

The Indians pronounce Escanaba Ess-koo-bah-bang. The particle eskun means "thin." Next comes "man." The "ne" is a locative suffix, and can mean "at, by, in," etc. I suspect that your town or river got its name from a thin trader who set up in business there and that Escanaba might be translated as "At Skinny's."

Though I don't consider myself an expert Algonquianist, I find that I can often do better at Algonquian etymology than many who have attempted it, including the Indians themselves.

I'm a squaw man, with a wife who speaks Ottawa much better than she speaks English. Moreover I've studied the makeup of the language, particularly in the late Leonard Bloomfield's outstanding book, "Eastern Ojibwa."

(Dever may or may not know that "At Skinny's" has been an optional translation of "Escanaba," especially at night, for some years. "Skinny's" is a popular bar-dance place opposite the Chicago & North Western Railway station.

Maurice Evans Stars As Ape

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Maurice Evans playing an ape?

The distinguished Shakespearean actor—renowned as Hamlet, Macbeth, Romeo and Falstaff—unrecognizable in rubber simian face and glued-on hair.

Aye, theater lovers, it's true. The British-born luminary of the American theater is playing the chief of a monkey society that dominates humans in a $5-million movie, "Planet of the Apes," produced by Twentieth Century Fox.

Charlton Heston and other astronauts discover the weird civilization when their spaceship crash-lands on the planet.

The decision whether to be or not to be a movie monkey was easy for Evans, 66, a performer-producer long acclaimed on both sides of the Atlantic.

The big Broadway theatergoer, he noted in an interview Thursday, are filled with musicals. Invitations to play Shakespeare or Shaw come only occasionally on television.

"There is no further opportunity for an actor of my type to function as I did in the past," he said, "and I do not like to be idle."

"I took this part for spiritual reasons of keeping busy. Otherwise, you get slack, fat and lazy."

In recent months the New Yorker has played also a retired British general in four episodes of television's "Tarzan." In "Batman," he was a villain who cut the Caped Crusaders loose in a hall with the Shakespearean cry, "This is the unkindest cut of all."

Miss Hammerberg Participating In NDEA Institute

Miss Barbara Hammerberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hammerberg of Escanaba, Rte. 1 has been chosen as one of the participants in an NDEA Institute being held at the University of Akron.

She is one of a group of 36 who was chosen for a seven week course in teaching French in elementary schools. She will receive eight semester hours of graduate credit at the conclusion of the course.

Miss Hammerberg taught at the Feich High School for several years, and the past school year taught French in the Shelby (Mich.) High School.

Financed by a National Defense Education Act grant of $78,000, the French foreign language in elementary schools institute is the only one of its kind to be conducted in the nation during 1967. It provides 36 elementary teachers with a French-speaking environment and an intensive program of practical studies for increasing their competence in French. The institute ends Aug. 4.

Pioneer Trail Gains Stature

Pioneer Trail Park, the popular county-operated campground and park on the Escanaba River, is rapidly gaining an international reputation as one of the finest facilities in the Midwest.

Kenton Anderson, park ranger, said Friday that park registrations have soared 233 over those for a similar period last year.

And the busy season is yet to come.

Anderson said the park already has had visitors from almost every state in the union and all of the Canadian provinces. There was even a fellow from London, England.

Despite a rainy month of June, registrations through Thursday night hit 777 for the season. The park, which has facilities for 56 units, had a total of 2,783 parties last summer.

"They're starting to come now," Anderson said. "There were 43 units Thursday night." He said the months of July and August are normally the busiest and he expects the park to be filled to capacity during the week of the U. P. State Fair.

Anderson said he figured Expo 67, the international exposition at Montreal, Canada, was both helping and hurting the park.

"Some of the people who might normally come up here from lower Michigan probably are going to Expo this year," he explained, "but on the other hand we are on the recommended route from western states."

He pointed out that Pioneer Trail has been a popular first night stop for Expo travelers from the Minneapolis-St. Paul area.

Besides attracting campers from all over the United States, Anderson said the park has had visitors from almost every major city in Michigan. People from Escanaba even come out, just to get away for a few days, he said.

The fee for an overnight stay is $2, which includes electricity, showers and water.

Besides the already fine camping and picnic facilities at the park, the Board of Supervisors and Delta County Trades & Labor Council are exploring the possibility of constructing a large pavilion in the park to house large company or organization picnics.

Preliminary plans for the structure have been prepared by the Road Commission. Methods of financing the estimated $12,000 cost for materials are under study. The Trades & Labor Council has indicated its members would be willing to donate time to help build the pavilion.

Enjoy Trip

The West Rock 4-H club members recently enjoyed a trip to the Mackinac bridge and Fort Michilimackinac and Park. The following members will leave Monday and return Friday after attending 4-H Camp Mollinaire at Sawyer Lake: Joanne Niemela, Elaine Bakka, Pamela and Susan Lehto, Cheryl Lipens and Carla Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Klayum and son Mark of Wood Dale, Ill., spent the weekend with the Albert Weldum family.

MISS LUCIANE IS a third generation circus performer who appears in the Repensky Family act on the Carson & Barnes Circus which will play two matinee performances, at 2:30 and at 5 p.m., on Sunday, July 16 at the Water Tower show lot in Escanaba. The Fraternal Order of Eagles will sponsor the circus, which last appeared in Escanaba in 1959. Kirby Grant, television's "Sky King" on CBS, is the headliner.

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — A prepared for her on Howland, the Michigan aviatrix recalled. "We couldn't even see it when we flew over, only just a light-house."

Mrs. Pellegrino did not elaborate on the reasons for her theory of where Miss Earhart was lost.

Mrs. Pellegrino and her crew planned to fly on to Miss Earhart's native Kansas today for a celebration at Newton and a reunion with their spouses.

She bucked strong headwinds during an 18-hour, 25-minute home stretch from Honolulu.

"I think she (Miss Earhart) went down in the Pacific not an abnormally far distance from Howland Island," said the hazel-eyed flier after covering more than 27,000 miles in 243 flying hours with three crewmen.

The flight started June 9. Mrs. Pellegrino's copilot was William Payne, her navigator. William Polhemus, and her mechanic, Lee Koepke. "When Amelia made the flight, a landing strip had been

Dishno Wounded Again In Vietnam

Thirteen days after he had received the Purple Heart, PFC Gerald J. Dishno was wounded a second time while fighting with U. S. forces in Vietnam.

The 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Dishno of Cornell was slightly wounded in the right leg on Thursday, July 6, and is now in an evacuation hospital. He is the Dishno's only child.

Gerald will receive a second Purple Heart, his parents were advised.

He was awarded the first Purple Heart on June 23 after he had suffered wounds on his left arm, side and leg while trying to have the life of a buddy. While he was carrying his wounded buddy, a second hand grenade was thrown by the enemy, which killed his friend and wounded Dishno.

From the hospital he expected his parents that he expected to "be back on the battlefield with my regiment within the next month."

At that time he expressed concern about the Viet Cong's expert use of booby traps, noting that two of his buddies died of wounds caused by such concealed traps within the past month. It was a booby trap that exploded on Thursday, wounding Dishno in the right leg. The wound is not serious, his parents were advised.

Dishno arrived in Vietnam in April for a year's tour of duty. He is a 1966 graduate of

PFC Gerald J. Dishno

Get Treatment For Bat Bites, Doctor Advises

Persons who are bitten by bats should go to their physician for treatment, it is recommended by the Michigan Department of Public Health.

During late spring and early summer, bats are more active than at any other time of year and hence there is increased incidence of bat bites, reports Dr. Mary L. Cretens, director of the Delta-Menominee District Health Department.

Rabies virus can be isolated from the saliva and not from the brain or vice versa, and because of this, brain specimens which are analyzed in the state laboratory do not prove the bat was infected. Therefore, treatment of all persons bitten by bats is recommended, she said.

NEW DUSK-TO-DAWN OUTDOOR SECURITY LIGHTING SERVICE

For Home - Farm - Business - Industry

Only $3.75 a Month!

Now for just a few pennies a day you can banish those dark, dingy and unsafe nighttime conditions on your property. You can install a modern, efficient mercury-vapor light near your home, farm, or place of business — adding safety, beauty and prestige to your property.

Think of what this new Dusk-to-Dawn outdoor lighting unit will mean to you and your family or business. No more fears from prowlers, vandalism, or animals. No more worry about your property and possessions when you are away. Then too, you'll enjoy the added illumination for doing those after-hour chores.

There is no investment or down payment required, and the monthly flat rate covers all materials, plus installation when the light is installed on existing facilities of the Upper Peninsula Power Company.

HERE'S WHAT YOU GET:

- An efficient, modern mercury lighting fixture designed for urban and rural areas.
- Complete installation and all maintenance required, including replacement of burned out bulbs.
- Cost includes all electricity used during the operation of the light on your property.
- A built-in photoelectric cell turns the light on as it gets dark and turns it off next morning, automatically.

This Dusk-to-Dawn Lighting is also ideal for:

Stores • Parking Lots • Motels • Gas Stations • Restaurants

Chamber Federation

It is with considerable reluctance that we endorse formation of another organization. Lord knows, this nation has such a proliferation of organizations that it is impossible to identify all of them or understand their missions. But what is supported here is not so much a new organization as a federation of existing organizations.

In brief, the proposal is that the various chambers of commerce in the Upper Peninsula form some sort of unit tying themselves together under a single organization capable of reflecting the general thinking of all the chambers. This sort of structure already exists in other fields. The Northern Michigan Sportsmen's Association, for instance, is an organization composed of a number of rod and gun clubs throughout the Upper Peninsula. It endeavors to speak for the organized sportsmen in this region.

Similarly, an Upper Peninsula Association of Chambers of Commerce (or whatever it might be called) could act on behalf of the individual chambers on numerous issues affecting the Upper Peninsula's economic and other interests.

A case in point suggested by proponents of a Federation is the recent controversy over Eastern and Central Time (a controversy that, incidentally, still cannot be considered resolved). Here was an issue having a direct effect on every resident of the Upper Peninsula. Yet there was no organization in the Upper Peninsula that could represent the entire region in this matter. An association of chambers of commerce at least would have been in a position to comment on the issue as a bona fide representative of a large element of the U. P. community.

There are several Peninsula-wide organizations that are concerned with various aspects of the region's wellbeing. Among them are the Upper Michigan Tourist Association and the Upper Peninsula Committee for Area Progress. The former, however, is dedicated to the special province of tourism, while the latter is a quasi-public agency primarily concerned with economic development and government programs and it meets only quarterly. Another organization, Operation Action-U. P., also is engaged in promoting the region's economy but does not have the grass roots representation throughout the Upper Peninsula that would exist in an alliance of chambers of commerce.

Such an alliance could be created with a minimum of organizational effort and could function whenever need arose. It need not be an organization with monthly meetings nor function through myriad committees. Rather, it could be an instrument for use as occasion demanded.

Jerry Pulliam, executive vice president of the Marquette Chamber of Commerce, had experience with a federation of chambers in Nebraska and favors such organization.

Walter Lewke, manager of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce favors a federation of U. P. chambers and suggested such an organization some years ago. "We already have an organization — District 5 of the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce Executives — but I think that only three U. P. chambers have representation on it: Marquette, Ishpeming and Iron Mountain," said Lewke.

Most chambers of commerce of the Upper Peninsula have in recent years enlarged their service area concept. The former Iron Mountain Chamber of Commerce is now the Dickinson County Chamber of Commerce. The Escanaba Chamber serves all Delta County because it gets many requests to serve the county, but there is also a Gladstone Chamber of Commerce. The two work together cooperatively.

The next step to federate the chambers for Upper Peninsula-wide actions, is a logical step. It should not be heavily structured, but just provide the means of discussing area-wide subjects. We would expect no magic to result from a C-C federation. The time problem is an example of the problem. The chambers serve different area interests and would not all agree on a common time standard, but they might by discussion reduce the chaos.

Federation should be specially helpful, suggested Lewke, in action endorsing or opposing proposed legislation.

TAXES
It is surprising how quickly after being newly elected to office that one succumbs to the world and mind of Lansing's legislative echo chambers.

It is my reaction after hearing excerpts of Representative Varnum's Rotary Club speech this week.

As one who voted for this fresh, unbiased newcomer to politics, I was particularly disappointed to find that the tone of his speech implied that he was representing Lansing to the Upper Peninsula rather than representing the Upper Peninsula to Lansing.

The question is not whether we should or should not have state income taxes as much as it is to seek a definition of some terms such as "tax reform." Is every new tax a reform? From Mr. Varnum's speech I could gather only that this reform is okay because it won't affect us much here in the U.P.; and that the state should watch its spending.

Most people agree that taxes are necessary to pay the costs of services best provided by government. But there is a limit to taxing people which I think is now being approached. If we are to be taxed on our income, then why continue to tax, and raise taxes, on sales; privileges to hunt, fish, camp in our own state to smoke or

A MINITRAIN loaded with sightseers, including several nuns, moves into the Iron Mountain Mine at Vulcan for a look at the important iron mining industry of the Upper Peninsula from the inside.

Trolley Car Transports Visitors To Iron Mine

By DAVID ASP
Of Panax Newspapers

Ride the little trolley into the land of eternal darkness, lighted only by the occasional beam of a miner's carbide lamp.

Ninety years of Dickinson County history unfolds before the eyes of those who visit the Iron Mountain Iron Mine, located in Vulcan, one and one-half miles east of Norway on highway US-2.

The little trolley, newly installed this spring, takes the visitor from the gaily decorated gift and souvenir shop on the surface, into the shaft itself where actual workable, though obsolete, mine equipment, informative displays and the mine itself, tell the story of iron mining . . . of boom and bust, of bustle and idleness, of prosperity and poverty . . . and now again hope.

Formerly West Vulcan Mine Nearly a billion tons of ore have been dug and scraped from holes and hills in the three Upper Peninsula iron ranges.

The ore has yielded iron to build battleships and safety pins, locomotives and perambulators, prison bars and bicycles, girders and trusses and fishhooks.

The Iron Mountain Iron Mine, actually known to area natives as the West Vulcan Iron Mine, is a relatively small part of the Penn Iron Range, which extended over an area two and one-half miles long and produced a total of 22,429,000 tons of ore between 1877 and 1947. This was the first of the Penn Range mines to begin operation, and was one of the last to cease operation in the mid 1940's.

Started Producing In 1887
The portion of the mine open for tours represents the oldest work done in the Vulcan-Penn Iron Mine area. The entrance to the main shaft is located approximately one mile west of the easternmost limit of the Penn Mines.

The first substantial prospecting in the Vulcan area was done by the Milwaukee Iron Company in 1872 under the direction of N. P. Hulst. The mine actually started producing in 1877 and ore was shipped every year except 1921 and 1932 up to and including 1945.

During the span of 68 years, the mine produced a total of 21,625,000 tons of ore. Of this, the area immediately west of the tunnel entrance contributed approximately 6,000,000 tons.

First Shipped By Wagon
During the early prospecting era, the ore was hauled by wagon to Menominee and from there it was shipped by vessel. After the Chicago and North Western Railway was completed in 1877, the ore from the Hop scotch winners were Joan Curtis, Elaine Beck, Joyce Olson, Ethel Rose and Jean Wentworth.

50 Years Ago
Unionized employees of the North Western Railroad here were granted the greatest increase in pay in the history of Escanaba. The new schedule became effective June 1, and all of the men effected received back pay for the time worked since that date.

The school census of Escanaba, completed by James C. Toland, Jr., showed that Escanaba had 4,156 children of school age between the ages of five and 20 years, which was an increase of approximately 60 over the previous year.

Vulcan Iron Mine was shipped by rail to Escanaba. The Vulcan Iron Mine was the first to have ore shipped by rail.

The ore and rocks seen at the Iron Mountain Iron Mine are some of the oldest known sediments in the world.

The average temperature of the mine, year around, is 46 degrees 425 feet below the surface of the ground above. The most fascinating part of the tour is the visit to the "big stope." This stope, 180 feet high, 620 feet long, 500 feet deep and 380 feet wide, yielded a total of 8,000,000 tons of ore during the time the mine was in operation. The stope is effectively lighted to show the beauty of the colorful underground rock formations.

From Industry To Tourism
The Iron Mountain Iron Mine and others like it are not only an important part in Upper Peninsula history, they are the Upper Peninsula as it was until the high-grade ore deposits became played out, and high-grade deposits elsewhere made the mining of the remaining low-grade ore economically impractical.

Mines such as the Vulcan Iron Mine now yield a crop of summer tourist dollars, rather than the millions of dollars yielded in bygone years by the sale of the high-grade iron ore.

Late developments in processing the low-grade ore have kindled the hope that the Upper Peninsula may one day again lead the world in the production of iron ore. Until the day when the ranges of the Upper Peninsula are defaced, ripped and scarred by modern open-pit mining, the story of the long since dead, romantic underground mining days can be seen, preserved almost exactly as it was the day the mines ceased to operate, at the Iron Mountain Iron Mine, in Vulcan.

Reds Duck Big War
By RAY CROMLEY
WASHINGTON — (NEA)—The Russians always leave themselves an out when the chips are down.

The Moscow Communists talk belligerently. They've taken over thousands of square miles of territory. They've started numerous local guerrilla wars. They've moved in on small countries. They've pushed allies, satellites and underground subversives on to war.

But for the past 50 years Moscow has been very cautious about getting into major wars. When a determined country of any size has stood up against them, the Russians have veered—when they could. In World War I, the Lenin government sued for peace with Germany right after it seized power in Russia.

In the late 1930s, Russians and Japanese fought major battles on the Manchuria-Siberia border. More than 20,000 soldiers were killed in the fighting. The Japanese didn't give. The Russians veered and did not let the Manchurian battles "escalate" into a "war."

In 1939, the Russians made a deal with Hitler's Germany. They didn't fight the Germans until Hitler's troops invaded Russia. But they did invade weak Finland.

In 1945, the Russians entered the war against Japan only after they had certain information Japan was already defeated and seeking peace and after making sure the tough Japanese Kwangtung army had left the area Russia would invade.

After World War II, Russian troops moved in and occupied Azerbaijan in weak Iran. But when President Truman told the Russians to leave—or else—they left.

In 1947 to 1949, the Russians sponsored the Communists in an underground guerrilla war in Greece. But Moscow was careful not to openly commit itself.

In 1948 to 1949 Moscow set up the Berlin blockade. But when the United States kept on supplying Berlin, the Russians stopped short of expanding the blockade into a general war.

In 1950, Moscow sponsored North Korea's invasion of South Korea. But when U. S., Korean and United Nations troops advanced north, the Russians made certain they did not become openly involved.

In 1956, Russian tanks moved against desperate Hungarians revolting against Communist rule. Hungary was a small nation. The Russians, before moving in, apparently first made certain that no important power would oppose them with armed action.

In the 1956 Suez war, the Israelis, the British and the French invaded Egypt when Nasser nationalized the Suez Canal and closed it to Israeli ships. The Russians threatened to bomb Western Europe but did not move militarily. In 1962, the Russians made a strong secret move to plant ballistic missiles in Cuba. But Nikita Khrushchev backed down when the United States gave him an ultimatum.

The Russians have given a considerable amount of aid to the North Vietnamese in the current war in Vietnam. But they've been careful to keep clear of direct involvement.

For the past several years there have been border clashes between the Russians and Communist Chinese. These have not developed into war.

In the Israeli-Arab war, the Soviet Union gave billions in military aid to the Arabs. Moscow pushed Nasser on from behind the scenes. But again the Soviet Union was careful not to get directly involved.

This is not to suggest the Russians are not good soldiers. It is not to suggest the Russians do not want wars. They've persistently fomented wars and underground subversion. But regardless of who was in power in the Soviet Union, Moscow has preferred to egg its satellites or obedient underground warriors on to battle while it stood by and cheered them on.

Soviet troops normally have moved in only when the victory was certain and the risks of involvement with a strong nation were slight.

When Moscow's guesses have been wrong, and there has been danger of a major war involving Russian troops and Russian territory, Moscow has attempted to make a deal that left it free to continue subversion on terms favorable to Russia, even when that meant sacrificing its allies.

This is to suggest that Moscow is not about to let the Middle East, Viet Nam or Red China get it involved in a major war.

He who lives by the sword dies by the sword. If he defends himself he lives longer but sometimes you just can't do anything about the counter thrust.

West's hand called for an opening bid of one heart and practically every player in the duplicate game made that bid. Invariably North would overcall with one spade and North and South would wind up at four spades. If hearts were opened and continued, North could make six but a club or diamond shift would almost surely hold North to five odd.

One West player decided to open with four hearts in spite of being vulnerable against non-vulnerable opponents. North passed. East passed and it was up to South.

South didn't have anything like a four spade bid but he was one of those players who are allergic to being shut out by an adverse preempt. He took a deep breath and came out with four spades.

This excited North. He bid four no-trump to check for aces and South dutifully bid five diamonds to show one. North decided that his partner wouldn't have more than one heart and jumped to the spade slam.

West was on lead and naturally opened the king of hearts and continued the suit. He was looking at the North hand and couldn't be sure that South didn't hold at least one more heart.

South ruffed low, played out his ace and queen of spades, finessed dummy's queen of clubs, ruffed dummy's last heart; returned to dummy with the ace of diamonds, drew East's last trump, came to his hand with the king of diamonds, took one more club finesse and claimed his slam.

Q-CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been: West North East South

1 ♠ You South, hold 42 ♠ A Q 10 6 ♦ K J 5 ♠ A Q J 4

What do you do?

A—Pass. If everyone passes you will probably beat one club. Otherwise you can bid later on.

TODAY'S QUESTION
You pass. West bids one spade and East raises to two spades. What do you now?

Ann Landers

The Eye These Days Sees Too Much Flesh

Dear Ann Landers: I am 16 and very popular. In fact, TOO popular. Please believe me when I say I am still a good girl. I admit I have necked with several guys (I started to date when I was 13) but I have never done anything I am really ashamed of.

The problem is that I get asked out so much and I like so many guys that sometimes I accept two dates for one night. For example, I'll accept a date with Freddie from 7 til 10, and then I'll tell Teddie to come over at 10:15 and we'll go for a ride or a late show at the drive-in. It has come back to me that I am getting a pretty tacky reputation.

I am only allowed to go out weekend nights and I have a 1:15 curfew which I have never broken. Please tell me how I can improve my reputation. — ANGEL PUSS

Dear Angel: The first thing you can do is cut out the second shift. A gal who has to stagger the traffic gives the impression that she is trying to break some sort of a record.

And I suggest that you make a new rule — "Hands off, one and all." Although you obviously consider yourself virtuous because you are technically intact, I suspect you are crowding the line, which can be risky as well as damaging to a girl's reputation.

Dear Ann Landers: I got pretty sore when I read that letter from "Goggle-eyed," the man who claims this is "The Year Of The Rear."

I agree that women's fashions are downright unattractive these days. Anyone with two eyes in his head can see that there is entirely too much leg showing and the skirts are much too tight and too short. But why don't some of the men take a good look at themselves?

I am sick and tired of seeing rolls of fat hanging over belt buckles. My husband yells that I am a lousy wife because buttons are missing from his shirts. The buttons do not come off in the laundry as he insists. They pop off when he tries to jam his fat self inside. He sneaks the shirts back into the drawer and then he puts the blame on me.

Sure, some wives are too heavy but many of them have had four or five babies in 10 years. They work like horses and they eat like horses. What's the husbands' excuse? — SIZE 16 AND WISH I WEREN'T

Dear Size 16: Take that and that, you fat husbands. But, in all fairness, I must say, Lady, excuses don't count. It's what meets the eye that matters. And the eye is meeting entirely too much flesh these days — both male and female types.

Confidential: To all the patients who wrote to tell me that I am out of my mind when I try to make excuses for physicians who keep patients waiting (sometimes for hours): Sorry, but what I said still goes. A first-rate physician thinks more about people than he thinks about time.

Sponsor Seminar On Citizenship

The Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with the County Farm Bureaus of the Upper Peninsula, is sponsoring a Citizenship Seminar Wednesday and Thursday, July 12 and 13 at Holy Name High School.

The purpose of the conference is to reaffirm American virtues and values, said Walter Lewke, Chamber Manager, and Hugo Kivi, Farm Bureau director.

Dr. Clifton Ganus, president of Harding College, Searcy, Ark., will headline Wednesday's program with the following topics: Understanding and Preserving our American Heritage; What Then is This New Man; The Moral Foundations of Freedom; and Pyramids of Freedom.

Charles H. Horch, area manufacturing manager for the Mead Corp., Chillicothe, Mo., the company's largest white paper manufacturing unit, will be the banquet speaker at Marco's Wednesday evening, July 12, at 6 o'clock. Chamber manager Walter Lewke will be toastmaster.

The public is invited.

NEW PORT RICHEY, Fla. (AP) — After being bleacher boosters for their sons during Little League season, mothers have organized softball teams for themselves. Their two teams are called the "Aches" and the "Pains."

The flying fox is a bat with a wingspan of two to five feet and a body 12 inches long.

American Farm Bureau Federation, will lead the discussion on Thursday, July 13, with the following topics: Economic Systems and Their Characteristics; Private Enterprise — the American System; and Preserving our Private Enterprise System.

The conference will begin with registration from 8 a.m. to 12, Wednesday at Holy Name High School followed by Dr. Ganus' discussions beginning at 10 a.m., resuming at 1 and adjourning at 4 for the evening banquet program.

Thursday morning's program will begin at 8:30 with Dr. Petersen leading the discussions. The seminar will adjourn at 3:30.

Dr. Ganus received his B.A. Degree from Harding College, his M.A. and Ph.D. from Tulane University. He was head of the department of history and social science of Harding, prior to advancement to dean, vice president and president of the college.

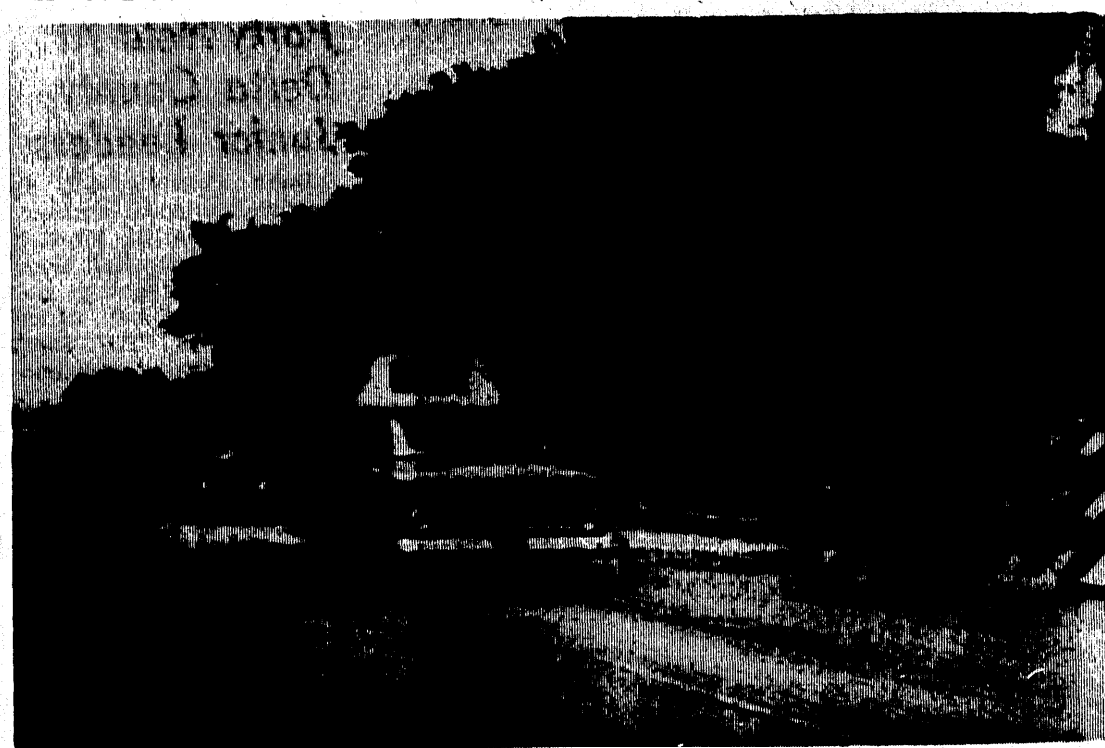

Petersen is a native of Iowa and a graduate of Iowa State College. He was a former high school principal, coach, vocational agriculture teacher and county agent; and was district field manager for the Iowa Farm Bureau, state organization director for the Wisconsin Farm Bureau and joined the staff of the American Farm Bureau in 1949.

Kivi, who will act as panel moderator, has been Michigan Farm Bureau field representative for the Upper Peninsula since 1957. Prior to 1957 he was market representative for the Michigan Milk Producers Association in the Ironwood market and spent some time in Dairy Herd Improvement Work. He lives in Escanaba.

Smugglers Duck Cigarette Tax; State Runs Ads

LANSING (AP) — A house trailer totting 7,800 cartons of untaxed cigarettes into Michigan has led state authorities on a smuggling hunt via Asheville, N.C., newspapers.

The cigarette tax division of the Michigan Department of the Treasury placed ads this week in the North Carolina papers, offering cash rewards for information leading to the arrest of persons transporting untaxed cigarettes into Michigan.

Smugglers bring the cigarettes into the state for sale without the 7-cent-per-pack state tax. "We had smugglers come into the state recently with cigarettes out of North Carolina," explained David Parker, division director.

"They had 130 cases — with about 60 cartons per case—in a trailer," Parker termed the haul "sizeable compared with the usual run of 10 to 15 cases."

Art Show Set For July 28-29

MARQUETTE — Art on the Rocks, the annual outdoor arts and crafts show sponsored by the Lake Superior Art Association, has been set for July 28-29.

The show is expected to attract a record 75 exhibitors. The paintings, sculptures, pottery and other art forms in the 8th annual show will feature artists and craftsmen from Lower Michigan and Wisconsin, as well as the Upper Peninsula.

June Was Wet; Lakes Rising

June rainfall was above normal in the Escanaba area and most of the Upper Great Lakes region, and levels of the Lakes are continuing to rise as the summer advances.

At Escanaba in June the total rainfall was 3.50 inches, which was only about one-third of an inch over normal—but there were measurable amounts of precipitation on 60 per cent of the days, the Weather Bureau reports.

On June 8 a total of 1.01 inches of rain fell to set a new daily precipitation record. While Great Lakes levels continue to rise and are far above their record lows, they are a long way from peak levels.

Lake Superior, with a surface elevation of 600 feet, is 24 inches above its low recorded in 1928 and 15 inches below the high recorded in 1876. Lake Michigan-Huron, at 578 feet, is 29 inches above its low in 1965 and 41 inches below the high in 1876.

The lake survey estimates that the level of Lakes Superior, Michigan and Huron will rise another one inch in the next month.

Abortion Law Hearing Aug. 21

LANSING (AP) — A controversial bill to liberalize Michigan's abortion laws will be examined at a public hearing in Lansing Aug. 21, the bill's sponsor, Sen. John McCauley, D-Wyandotte, said.

The bill would allow termination of a pregnancy if it was determined to be necessary to the physical or mental health of the mother or if there was a risk the child would be born with a physical or mental defect in the case of a pregnancy caused by rape or incest.

McCauley said he expects experts from many fields to testify in support of the bill, which is being considered by the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Several states have enacted bills similar to his, McCauley said, including California, Colorado and North Carolina.

Fish Die-off Is Expected To End By Mid-month

LANSING — Dead alewife, windrowed from one end of Lake Michigan's east shore to the other, have communities, resorts, property owners, the Conservation Department and vacationists, all deeply concerned with the question: What can be done about it?

There is hope, based on past experience, that mid-July will see the beginning of the end of the messy situation. Conservation Department fisheries men point out, there is little hope that any cleanup efforts will be adequate until the die-off tapers off through natural processes.

Alewife dieoffs have been building up for the past ten years. They begin with arrival of warm weather, usually in June, following the spawning season. Life span of the fish is three to four years and old age seems to be an important major cause of death.

Bludgeon Death Charged To Youth

PONTIAC (AP) — A 19-year-old Pontiac youth faces a murder charge today in the bludgeon death of a teen-aged girl who had been missing for three weeks.

Porfidio Rey Acosta demanded examination at his arraignment Friday before Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum of Pontiac. Acosta was ordered held without bond pending the preliminary hearing next Tuesday.

Police said the badly beaten body of 15-year-old Linda D. Arnold was found in front of Acosta's home Friday. Acosta was standing over the body, police said, when they arrived after being summoned by a passing motorist.

Miss Arnold had been reported missing since June 13 by her mother, Mrs. Dolly Arnold.

Mrs. Arnold had signed a complaint accusing Acosta with contributing to the delinquency of a minor after the girl ran away from home three times earlier this year.

Alexander Graham Bell was just 29 years old when he invented the telephone.

Tai' Gunner Is Single Survivor Of B52 Crash

DA NANG, Vietnam (AP) — A U.S. B52 bomber crashed and burned at Da Nang Air Base tonight, killing all except one crew member, while attempting an emergency landing.

The lone survivor in the six-man crew was the tail gunner, who was pulled from the burning wreckage.

No bombs were aboard the Strategic Air Command Stratofortress.

The aircraft, returning from a bombing mission, attempted to land at Da Nang with an electrical failure and two of its eight engines out.

Witnesses said it caught fire.

Rickenbacker Urges Tougher Policy In War

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP) — Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, World War I flying ace and Congressional Medal of Honor winner, said Friday that "right now is not too early" to hit the Chinese communists with nuclear weapons.

Rickenbacker spoke at ceremonies observing the 50th anniversary of Selfridge Air Force Base near Mount Clemens.

The 77-year-old pioneer aviator said that the United States is only "tickling" the enemy in Vietnam and that we must attack production centers and "starve the population out" if we are to win.

Asked if such a course might bring the Chinese into the conflict, Rickenbacker said: "To hell with what Chinamen think, we've got the weapons."

Rickenbacker is a former chairman of the board of Eastern Air Lines.

Romney Certain Of Primary Win

MIRROR LAKE, N.H. (AP) — Encouraged by his conferences with New Hampshire Republicans, Michigan Gov. George Romney says he is "confident I could win" America's premier primary here next year if he decides to seek the GOP presidential nomination.

Romney, 60 today, was in a gay mood when he gathered with more than 500 Granite State Republicans, representing all levels of the state party structure, and declared: "There's a better way than LBJ."

Leonard Hall, head of a national Romney for President organization, repeated the phrase at the Friday night reception at a nearby hilltop estate known as "Castle on the Clouds."

Hall, a former Republican national chairman, promptly added: "and George Romney will show the way."

Romney concludes his four-day "pulse-check" of New Hampshire today and flies to Scranton, Pa., for the 25th wedding anniversary of former Pennsylvania Gov. and Mrs. William Scranton.

Massachusetts Gov. John A. Volpe joined the Romney party.

Romney and Volpe, who have made no formal announcements, but could be opponents in New Hampshire's March 12 primary, exchanged views Friday.

Air Vet, Accused Vancouver Sniper Asks For Lawyer

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — A gaunt, 35-year-old Canadian Air Force veteran stood meek and silent in Magistrate Court, charged with the murder of a young couple and the wounding of two others during a wild shooting spree.

Arthur John Towell said only that he would like time to get a lawyer before entering a plea on two counts of first degree murder and two of attempted murder.

Magistrate James Bartman Friday ordered Towell held without bail and said the plea would be heard July 14. Police said the shooting with a high-powered rifle, broke out near the University of British Columbia about 9 p.m. Thursday.

The quiet evening was shattered by more than a dozen shots from the two-story West 11th Avenue house where Towell, a bachelor, lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Towell.

Red Chinese Mob Kills Police At Hong Kong Today

HONG KONG (AP) — A mob of 300 Communist Chinese attacked a police garrison across the border today, killing four Hong Kong police with automatic weapons fire. The Communists then opened fire on Gurkha troops sent to reinforce the police.

Eighty-six policemen barricaded themselves inside the police post and about 80 others took cover in a government building 50 yards behind it.

Troops of the 48th Gurkha Infantry Brigade advanced through sniper fire to rescue those in the government building, then turned against the 300 Reds trying to batter down the doors of the police post.

Eleven policemen were wounded.

Two of the dead policemen were identified as Hong Kong-born Pakistanis. Sixty or so of them are on duty in the border area. The other two killed were Hong Kong Chinese.

America needs your help.

There is a new plan for America, who want to help their country as they help themselves. Now, when you buy U.S. Savings Bonds through Payroll Savings where you work or the Bond-a-Month Plan where you bank, you are also entitled to purchase the new higher-paying Freedom Shares. They are available on a one-for-one basis with Savings Bonds in four denominations and are redeemable after one year. Sign up soon.

Questions and answers about Freedom Shares.

Q. What are Freedom Shares?
A. They are the new U.S. Savings Bonds—a companion product to the Series E Savings Bond.
Q. Who may buy Freedom Shares?
A. Any individual who purchases Series E Bonds regularly through a payroll plan—either Payroll Savings where he works or Bond-a-Month where he banks.
Q. What is the interest rate on Freedom Shares?
A. 4.74% compounded semiannually, when held to maturity of 4 1/2 years. The rate is less if redeemed prior to maturity; and they may not be redeemed for at least one year.
Q. Does this same rate now apply to E Bonds?

A. No. E Bonds continue to return an average of 4.15% when held to their seven year maturity.

Q. What do Freedom Shares cost?
A. They are issued in face amounts of $25, $50, $75 and $100. Purchase prices are $20.25, $40.50, $60.75 and $81.00.
Q. Can Freedom Shares be bought by themselves?
A. No. They must be bought in conjunction with E Bonds of the same or larger face amounts. For example, a $25 Freedom Share may be bought with a $25 E Bond, when on a regular plan. The total price would be $39 ($20.25 for the Freedom Share and $18.75 for the Bond).

Q. Can I buy as many Freedom Shares as I want, as long as I buy E Bonds of the same or larger amounts?
A. No. On Payroll Savings, Freedom Share deductions are limited to $20.25 per weekly pay period, $40.50 per bi-weekly or semi-monthly pay period, $81.00 per monthly pay period. On Bond-a-Month, the limit on Freedom Share deductions is $81.00 per month.

Q. No. On Payroll Savings, Freedom Share deductions are limited to $20.25 per weekly pay period, $40.50 per bi-weekly or semi-monthly pay period, $81.00 per monthly pay period. On Bond-a-Month, the limit on Freedom Share deductions is $81.00 per month.

Judy Nixon Bride Of William Kwarcianny

PFC Judy Nixon and PFC William Kwarcianny, both of Ft. Sheridan, Ill., were united in marriage by the Rev. Thomas P. Dunleavy at 4 p. m. on July 1 at St. George's Church in Bark River.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Nixon of Chewelah, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kwarcianny of Bark River.

Miss Christine Nault was the organist and Mrs. Charles Sigmond was choir director for the double-ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, SP-4 William Nixon, of Ft. Lewis, Wash.

Serving as maid of honor for her sister was Barbara Nixon of Chewelah. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Willard Borman of Soo Hill, Linda Wwarcianny, Bark River, a cousin of the bridegroom and Mrs. Stanley Kwarcianny, Jr., Escanaba, sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

Bestman for his brother was Stanley Kwarcianny, Escanaba and groomsmen were Antone Cavadeas, Jr., Wilson, Richard Grzyb, Bark River and Willard Borman, Soo Hill. James Peltier, Detroit, and Thomas Kwarcianny, Bark River, the bridegroom's cousin, performed the ushering duties.

Rhonda and Richard Kwarcianny, sister and brother of the bridegroom, served as miniature bride and ringbearer.

Lace, Taffeta

The bride was attired in a dress of Alencon lace over taffeta, designed with a floor-length A-line skirt, empire waist, rounded neckline and long tapered sleeves. The gown was sewn by the bride's mother. Her finger-tip illusion veil was attached to a pearl beaded crown and she carried a bouquet of white orchids surrounded by white mums.

The maid of honor wore a pink A-line street length dress styled with an empire waist and a lace coat, while the bridesmaids were attired in turquoise bonded lace dresses. All wore matching veils with bows and carried bouquets of white pompons.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Nixon selected a two-piece light coral colored ensemble with white accessories. She was presented a white carnation corsage.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a mist green sheath dress accented with beige accessories. She was presented with a corsage of pink carnations as was the paternal grandmother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Agnes Kwarcianny.

Reception

The reception was held at the Bark River Legion Hall from 5 to 9 p. m. followed by dancing till 1 a. m. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Carl Mrocykowski, Patricia Grzyb and Diane Kwarcianny.

The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at their home in Rapid River on Friday evening.

After a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, the couple plan to reside in Ft. Sheridan, Ill.

The bride is a 1966 graduate of Jenkins High School, Chewelah. She entered the army in 1966, received basic training at Ft. Benjamien, Ind., and later transferred to Ft. Sheridan.

The bridegroom graduated from Bark River-Harris High School in 1964 and attended NMU. He entered the U. S. Army in October of 1966 and received his basic training at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo. He transferred to Ft. Benjamien, Ind., where he attended a private secretarial school and now is a private secretary at Ft. Sheridan, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Quist

Arvid Quists Are Married Fifty Years

Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Quist observed their golden wedding anniversary with an open house on Sunday afternoon, July 2 at their home in Schaffer.

Mrs. Quist received guests wearing a black and white summer print dress with a corsage of gold mums presented to her by the Lutheran Church Women of Salem Lutheran Church of Bark River.

A brief program included two readings by Mrs. Charles Beckingham, an original poem by Mrs. Lawrence Erickson on "The Life of the Quists", and remarks by Pastor Charles Beckingham of Salem Lutheran.

Wedding bells and gold ribbon decorated the home. Garden flowers and gold tapers adorned the buffet table which was covered with a white linen cloth, a gift from their late son, Ivor, who sent it to them when he served in the armed forces overseas.

Mr. Quist's sister, Mrs. Mary Olson of Bark River, presided at the silver service.

A three tiered wedding cake decorated in gold was made and presented to them by their niece, Mrs. Walter Martin of Bark River.

Mrs. Quist was the former Emma Skoglund, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Skoglund of Bark River, and was married to Arvid Quist in the home of her sister, Mrs. Swan Fransen of Bark River on June 24, 1917. Their attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Albin Olson, formerly of Bark River, now residing in Ypsilanti.

The Quists lived in Bark River for a number of years where he was employed by the Bark River Culvert Company. They later moved to the farm in Schaffer where they are presently residing.

They have two sons living: Laurence of Schaffer and Morris of Albuquerque, N. M., two grandchildren, Morris, Jr., and Pamela of Albuquerque. Morris, Jr., was present for the occasion.

Lew Brammer served as master of ceremonies and Rev. Joseph Guin gave the invocation. Special speaker was Donald Douville of Iron Mountain, who graduated from Nahma High in 1938. His topic was, "The Good Old Days in Nahma."

Gifts were awarded to Effie Hebert Boles of Monterey, Calif., for traveling the farthest; Marcella Camps as the oldest graduate; youngest graduate, David Groleau; oldest child, Esther Camps Johnson; youngest child, Carol Hebert LaFonde; most children graduating from Nahma High, Myrtle Pomeroy Groleau.

Dear Heloise:

In sewing buttons on coats or suits, use the clear nylon thread with a colored thread. The nylon gives strength and the colored one matches the garment so the thread isn't conspicuous.

Julia N.

Dear Heloise:

I know how to dry parsley and celery tops now, I'd like to know how to dry onions!

I've tried chopping and spreading them out on a cookie sheet, then leaving them in the open (with just the pilot light on), but they burn every time.

I use so many onions in soups and stews that I would love to know how to dry them. Onion flakes are so much more convenient than peeling and chopping an onion every time it's needed.

If you don't know, perhaps some of your readers do, so how about asking them for me?

Luzy Lola

I might as well be truthful and admit that I haven't had any luck drying onions either!

If any of you know the solution, how about sharing it with us? Write us a few lines in care of this paper.

There must be a way to do this in our homes. And think of the money we could save!

Heloise

Dear Heloise:

I put my name, address and phone number on my shopping bag.

If I accidentally leave the bag in a store or in a taxi the person who finds it will know who it belongs to, and will be able to contact me. Saves many a lost shopping bag.

Mrs. G. L. Parsons

Dear Heloise:

When going boating, camping or picnicking, I pack all but the ice chest-needs into those wonderful plastic trash containers. I bought a new one with the secure, or snap-on lid to use just for outings.

Everything is dry and safe with no mad rush if a sudden shower or hungry little eaters appear.

One to two tablespoons of cornstarch will thicken the syrup (plus water to make one cup) from a one-pound can of fruit. The amount of cornstarch you use will depend on how thick you want the sauce; also on how much sugar is added.

Homemaking Tips

Some good cooks have been known to add a few drops of salad (not olive) oil to a confectioners sugar glass for a cake.

Both granulated syrup and the syrup from preserved ginger are a delicious addition to grapefruit served on the half-shell.

Party Held At Delta County Junior Leaders

Delta County's 4-H Junior Leaders sponsored a dance Friday evening at the Rapid River American Legion Hall. Over one hundred young people, representing the entire county, danced to the music of "The Steppin' Stones," a young rock and roll band from Gladstone.

The theme for the successful summer party was "Getting To Know You." Bright colored balloons and streamers decorated the hall.

The party was planned by Betty Lou Krause, Bark River; Cathy Fix, Klint, Safford, Ensign; Tina Oberg, Rapid River; Kathy Madden, Mary Jo DeKeyser, Gladstone; adult advisors, Mrs. James LaFleur, Mrs. Robert Walker, Gladstone, and Mrs. Clifford Larson, Wells.

Party details were arranged by Wells 4-H Club, publicity: Gladstone Community 4-H and Ensigns 4-H, decorations: Bark River 4-H Club, tickets.

Adults assisting with the party were: Joe Heirman, Delta County extension director, Mrs. James LaFleur, Mrs. Lawrence St. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Martin, Mrs. Melvina Meyers of Gladstone, Mrs. Clifford Larson, Wells, Mrs. Barbara Norlander, Mrs. Stanley Dominick, Tom Safford, Ensign.

Crusader Team At Immanuel On Sunday

The Crusader youth team from Minneapolis will take part in the Sunday worship services at the Immanuel Lutheran church tomorrow. These young people are college age youth who travel throughout the country presenting their witness youth to youth. During the next week they will be acting as cabin counselors at the Bible camp near Crivitz, Wis.

Thirty six high school youth from Immanuel Church will be attending camp this week. This is the largest number to ever attend from Immanuel.

This evening, the youth of Immanuel and Christ the King Lutheran will meet together for supper, games and campfire with the crusaders. The young people are reminded to meet at Immanuel at 6 o'clock. In the event of rain the activities will be held at the church.

Judy Gasparick Legion Queen

BARK RIVER — Miss Judy Gasparick, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gasparick of Bark River, was crowned Miss American Legion at the dance Tuesday night in the Legion Hall. Last year's queen, Miss Judy LeBeau, crowned the new queen.

First runner-up was Miss Judy Hanson, daughter of the Eugene Hansons; second runner-up was Miss Carol Motto, daughter of the Edward Mottos of Wilson.

Miss Gasparick is a 1966 graduate of Holy Name High School, Escanaba, attended Northern Michigan University in Marquette last year, is presently employed at Goodman Drug in Escanaba. She plans to take a secretarial course at Bay de Noc Community College in Escanaba this fall.

War II GI Loan Deadline July 25

WASHINGTON (AP)—If you haven't used your GI housing loan privilege—better act quickly.

The privilege expires July 25. A Veterans Administration spokesman announced that any World War II vet whose loan has not been processed—and guaranteed—by July 25 will no longer be eligible to get the government-insured loan.

He said a loan could be processed in a week at the earliest. The cut-off does not apply to Korean War vets or those considered post-Korean veterans such as the Vietnam GIs.

The expiration date for Korean vets is Jan. 31, 1975. There's no expiration date for post-Korean vets.

Cosmetologists Required To Take Tuberculosis Test

LANSING (AP) — All cosmetologists, electrologists, instructors of cosmetology and manicurists must undergo annual tuberculosis tests under a new public law, the Department said today.

The department said license renewal forms will be sent out in July and unless the form is returned with clearance from communicable tuberculosis signed by a physician or local health officer, the license may not be renewed by the State Board of Cosmetology.

The examination, either a chest X-ray or a tuberculin skin test, may be obtained from either a physician, a county or city health department, or a mobile X-ray unit, the department said.

Homemade Bomb Tears Off Hand

JACKSON (AP) — A Jackson teenager was reported in poor condition at Mercy Hospital Friday after a homemade bomb exploded, tearing off his left hand and leaving a hole in his chest.

Dale Warren, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Warren, was in his basement when the bomb exploded Thursday night, police said. His parents were away on a trip to Ohio.

The Rev. Parks of Newberry officiated. Pallbearers were James Boyd, Louis Berry, Robert Zellar, John Metcalf, William Berry and Larry Jack. Burial was in Germfask cemetery under direction of Messier-Broulliere Funeral Home.

THE LITTLE WOMAN

Rose Collects Four Hits But Pays 50 Dollar Fine For Stranding Teammate

By The Associated Press

It was the most expensive four-hit night of Pete Rose's career.

Rose smashed a triple, two doubles and a single, drove in three runs and scored twice as the Reds downed Pittsburgh 6-2 Friday night. It cost him fifty bucks.

That's because the only time the Pirates retired him, Rose broke Cincinnati Manager Dave Bristol's new rule that levies a $50 fine anytime a batter strands a runner at third base with less than two out.

Bristol installed the rule for the first time Friday, hoping to snap the Reds out of a lethargic slump that had seen them drop 14 of 19 games and fall from first to third place.

Rose, the new system's first victim wasn't complaining. "It's a good rule," he grinned, waving $25 and some trading stamps he had collected from a post-game radio interview and trying to get Bristol to settle for that.

Elsewhere in the National League Friday night, San Francisco nipped Los Angeles 2-1, Atlanta went 11 innings before edging New York 3-2, Houston battered Chicago 11-5 and St. Louis dropped Philadelphia 5-1.

Jim Hart smashed a two-run homer that broke a scoreless tie in the sixth inning and lifted the Giants over the Dodgers. Hart's 390-foot shot beat Bill Singer, who had shut out the Giants in his only other start against them.

Ray Sadecki, 3-0, and Frank Linzy limited the Dodgers to five hits. Jeff Torborg slammed a home run for Los Angeles.

Joe Torre drove in two runs with a single and homer and Mack Jones tagged the 11th inning homer that beat the Mets for the Braves.

Torre singled Hank Aaron across with the tying run in the ninth inning and then Jones opened the 11th against reliever Jack Lamabe with his game winner.

The Cubs absorbed their fifth straight defeat and fell 2½ games back of St. Louis as Houston's Barry Latman hurled 5-2-3 innings of two-hit relief.

A five-run fourth inning keyed by two-run doubles by Don Davis and Bob Aspromonte, got the Astros going. Jimmy Wynn doubled across two more Houston runs in the fifth, lifting his league leading runs batted in total to 62.

Steve Carlton won his seventh game for St. Louis as the Cardinals snapped a 1-1 sixth inning tie against Philadelphia with four runs.

Julian Javier's two-run single was the big blow for the Cardinals, who beat ex-teammate Larry Jackson, 6-9.

Jackson was struck in the face by a wild throw in the four-run uprising and was to have X rays of his nose taken today.

White Sox Trip Twins

By The Associated Press

It took Gary Peters one inning to shut off the Minnesota Twins—just as Eddie Stanky said he would.

It took Stanky a lot longer to turn on the Chicago White Sox—but when opportunity finally knocked they left nothing to Chance.

The White Sox spotted Dean Chance a 1-0 first inning lead Friday night, then scored twice in the ninth on Zoilo Versalles two-out, bases-loaded error for a 2-1 victory that snapped Minnesota's eight-game winning streak and dropped the Twins into third place in the American League race.

Peters gave up doubles by Cesar Tovar and Tony Oliva in the first, then stymied the Twins until the ninth, when knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm came on to complete the two-hit.

The loss left Minnesota one-half game behind the Detroit Tigers, who edged Boston 5-4 in 11 innings, and 3½ lengths behind the first place Sox.

In other games Friday night, the New York Yankees blanked Baltimore 3-0. Cleveland trimmed Washington 6-3 and California swept a doubleheader from Kansas City 7-2 and 8-2.

Atlanta nipped the New York Mets 3-2 in 11 innings. St. Louis topped Philadelphia 5-1. Cincinnati downed Pittsburgh 6-2.

Houston bombed the Chicago Cubs 11-5 and San Francisco shaded Los Angeles 2-1 in National League play.

New York braked a five-game losing string behind the four-hit pitching of Al Downing, who struck out 12 on the way to his ninth victory. Mickey Mantle drove in the only run Downing needed with a sixth inning double and Joe Pepitone smacked a two-run homer in the eighth.

Sam McDowell flipped a four-hitter, striking out 10, and Pedro Gonzalez' seventh inning single snapped a 1-1 deadlock before the Indians pulled away from Washington with a three-run burst in the eighth.

Rick Reichardt, wearing glasses for the first time in his career, blasted a pair of homers while Don Mincher and Paul Schaal also homered in California's twilight victory over the A's.

Roger Repoz, traded from Kansas City to the Angels recently, drilled two doubles and a single in the second game, driving in two runs, and Reichardt added a two-run single.

Tigers Stretch Victory String On Freehan Hit

DETROIT (AP) — Bill Freehan solved a tricky pitch, extending Detroit's winning streak to five games and lifting the Tigers back into second place in the American League race.

Freehan cracked what he called "a Vaseline ball" to the leftfield wall for a double off John Wyatt Friday night.

The hit in the 11th inning scored Jim Northrup and boosted the Tigers to a 5-4 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

Chicago nipped Minnesota 2-1 and that left the Tigers in second, three games behind Chicago and half a game ahead of Minnesota.

"It was a fast ball," Freehan said. "I think I hit the dry side." He added with a grin. "He was throwing a Vaseline ball. It acts like a spitter. I think he kept the Vaseline on his pants."

Wyatt came in in the ninth for the Red Sox and took the loss. Mike Marshall, who came the winner.

Detroit jumped on starter Gary Wasewski for two runs in the first off a double by Lenny Green and singles by Jerry Lumpe and Norm Cash.

Joe Sparna started for Detroit and held the Sox hitless until Reggie Smith singled in the fifth. Boston scored in the seventh on a walk, a single by George Scott and a sacrifice fly by Rico Petrocelli.

Detroit got two in the seventh on Dick McAuliffe's single and a towering home run by Cash, which landed high in the left field stands.

"I'm hitting better," Cash said. "The second half has started. I hope," added the notoriously slow starter.

Sparna went into the ninth with a two-hitter going. But with two out Tony Conigliaro tagged a 400-foot home run. Scott and Petrocelli followed with singles that knocked out Sparna.

Reggie Smith and pinch hitter Jerry Adair rapped singles off Marshall, tying the score.

In the 11th, Northrup scratched a single and Freehan followed with a ringing double to the left field fence. Northrup crashed into Russ Gibson in the slide and took him out from under the throw, scoring the winning run.

"When I slid I just stuck my foot out in front and it took his ankle out from under him," Northrup said.

Sparna talked in rapid bursts after failing to win his well-pitched game.

"I was throwing the ball good in the ninth," he said. "I didn't want to walk anybody. You've got to throw strikes. Conigliaro hit a fast ball, it wasn't a bad pitch. The next two were bloopers. But I guess being taken out is part of the game," he said.

The Tigers were sending Denny McLain (9-9) against Lee Stange (3-5) in today's afternoon contest with Boston.

The Escanaba All Stars surged from behind with four runs in the seventh inning to defeat the No. 2 Iron Mountain team, 6-3, in an opening round game in the Upper Peninsula Babe Ruth championship tournament here Friday.

In other tilts Calumet knocked off defending champion Bessemer, 6-5, and the No. 1 Iron Mountain team bombed Ishpeming, 15-0.

Semifinal action is slated today with Iron Mountain facing Calumet at 1:30 and Escanaba taking on Ironwood at 4. The title game will be played Sunday at 2.

Escanaba won it the hard way, rallying for four runs in the final frame to wipe out a 3-2 deficit. Bruce Irving stroked a key single in the inning and Iron Mountain's leaky defense paved the way for the rally.

Iron Mountain threatened in the last of the seventh with two base runners but Allan Larson worked his way out of trouble on the Escanaba mound. Larson scattered 10 hits going the distance, fanning nine and granting two bases on balls.

Joe Sparana opened on the mound for Iron Mountain and stepped down for southpaw Bob Reiten in the seventh. Together they allowed seven hits, including a pair by leadoff batter Brian Larson.

John Pucci fired a two hitter and fanned 12 batters as

Tax Bill Shows State Valuation

Gladstone residents who are presently receiving their 1967 City Tax Bills noticed that in the valuation column of the bill two figures appear, the assessed valuation and the State Equalized Valuation which is approximately 14 per cent higher.

This difference of about 14 per cent between the assessed and State Equalized Valuations has existed for the last five years, however this year State law requires that both valuations be shown on the tax bill and that the tax be figured on the higher or state equalized valuation.

Calculation of the tax bill on the higher valuation results in no increase to Gladstone taxpayers since the rate is lower. Thus, a taxpayer with an assessed valuation of $3,000 last year was taxed at the rate of $15.90 per thousand or a total of $47.70. This year the same assessed valuation of $3,000 is shown on the tax bill, however the State Equalized Valuation of $3,390 is also shown. The tax bill is calculated at the rate of $14.06 per thousand on the valuation of $3,390 for a total of $47.67.

The reappraisal presently going on in the City has nothing to do with 1967 tax valuations. Any results of this reappraisal will first appear on the 1968 City Tax bills. The reappraisal began on the eastern edge of the City and at present work is being done between 6th and 7th streets. Where property owners are not home at the time of the original call, revisits will be made at a later date.

City Agenda Has Two Items

The City Commission will meet in the City Hall at 7:30 p. m. Monday with only two items to consider, according to the agenda released today by City Manager H. J. Henriksen.

The Commission will consider a bid for industrial park improvements and also open bids for a power mower.

Briefly Told

State Police issued traffic tickets Friday to Joseph Pavlat, Spalding, driving left of center, and Freeman Bagnell, Sault Ste. Marie, no registration between noon and 3 p. m. for lunch.

A car driven by Edward Schwandt Jr., Neenah, Wis., struck a deer on M-35 about a mile north of County Rd. 529 in Ford River Township at 9:20 p. m., Friday, State Police reported.

A breaking and entering at a cabin in Escanaba Township is under investigation by State Police. The cabin, owned by Gerald Godfrey of Dearborn Heights, was entered sometime in the past several months, officers said. It has not been determined if anything is missing.

The Delta-Schoolcraft Intermediate Board of Education will meet July 18 at the Administrative office in Gladstone. A public hearing will be held on the adjusted budget for 1967-1968 fiscal year and the board also will conduct its general reorganization meeting.

Chrysler Recalls 6,000 Autos For Check Of Brakes

DETROIT (AP) — Owners of 6,500 Chrysler Corp. cars are being asked to return the vehicles to dealers because of a possible defect in front wheel disc brakes.

The firm said Friday it has recalled 525 late production 1966 and 5,975 early model 1967 Plymouth Belvedere and Dodge Coronet and Charger cars with the disc brakes.

The reason: "A possibility that water may enter the disc brake proportioning valve." Dealers are to install new valves.

Chrysler also ordered back 7,407 Plymouth Barracuda and Dodge Dart 1967 two-door hardtops with rear center seat belts. The firm ordered its dealers to install a part that would protect the seat belt from possibly being cut by a shelf panel brace in a severe collision.

Also recalled were 150 Dodge Chargers made this year, for inspection to determine whether their chrome front wheels were assembled without hub dust caps that prevent dirt and water from reaching the hubs.

Model For Nickel Is Dead At 92

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Chief John Big Tree, one of three Indians who modeled for the profile on the Indian head nickel in 1912, died Thursday at his home on the Onondaga Indian Reservation. Big Tree claimed to be 102 years old, but reservation records indicated he was 92.

GLADSTONE Troopers Promoted

FIVE MICHIGAN STATE POLICE officers were promoted to the rank of Corporal Friday at the Gladstone Post in advancement ceremonies with a distinct Gladstone flavor. The ceremony was the first of its kind ever held in the Upper Peninsula. Receiving badges from Lt. Col. Melvin Kaufman, deputy director of the Michigan State Police, are, from left, Harold Karnitz, Arnold Johnson, James Schram, Donald Davidson and Duane Girard, as Sgt. W. I. Treichel, commander of the Gladstone Post, and Capt. Robert H. Bilgen, district commander of Marquette, look on. Karnitz and Schram are natives of Gladstone, the other three officers have been stationed at the Gladstone Post. With the promotions, all received new assignments. Karnitz was transferred from Stephenson to Newberry, Johnson from Gladstone to Iron River, Schram from Iron Mountain to Iron River, Davidson from Gladstone to Manistique, and Girard from Gladstone to Calumet. Sally Hupy Reports To Lions:

Pace In France Slower Than U.S., Student Says

Sally Hupy

"The French way of life is much slower than the American way," Sally Hupy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hupy, 611 Minneapolis Ave., told the Gladstone Lions Club Thursday night.

"The French take their time, are never rushed and are a very personable people," she said. "All the stores are closed between noon and 3 p. m. for lunch."

Miss Hupy, a 1963 graduate of Gladstone High School and a June graduate of Augustana College, spoke about "Traveling and Living Abroad" after returning from a year's study at the Institute of American University, a division of the University of Marseilles in Aix En Provence.

During her stay she lived with a French family. They spoke no English. In her first semester of study, half of her courses were in French and the other half in English. The second semester all courses were taught in French.

Obituary

NARCIS (NELS) THIBEAULT Funeral services for Narcis (Nels) Thibault were held at 9 a. m. today at All Saints Church with Msgr. Matt LaViolette officiating. Burial was in Gardens of Rest Cemetery. Pallbearers, all grandsons, were Larry and Roger Carlson, Terry Gagnon, Lee Fix, Mason Thibault and Charles Dugas.

Water Mishaps Fewer; Too Cold

EAST LANSING (AP) — Unseasonably cool weather has kept Michigan's drowning total to 119 through July 5, report the Michigan State Police. The total is 27 fewer than the same period last year.

Water accidents this year have injured 66 persons, the police say, 21 fewer than last year.

PATTERN 474

A DONKEY CART planter is quaint and gay for a patio or any place in the yard that a flower accent is needed. Flowers may be planted right in the cart or potted plants may be placed in it. The donkey's peak expression is easy to reproduce by filling in colors as indicated on Pattern 474 which gives actual-size cutting and painting guides and directions for assembling the project. Price 35c.

Escanaba Daily Press Pattern Dept., P. O. Box 50 New Windsor, N. Y. 12550

France is about 20 years behind America. Hot water is at a premium. Usually bath water is heated twice a week. Automobiles in France are not up to U.S. standards. Prices on cars & clothing are as high as in U.S. and food is quite expensive. The quality of meat doesn't compare to ours, she said.

Discussing areas of misunderstanding between U.S. and France, Miss Hupy remarked, "Some of the problems stem from the fact that certain remarks when translated from one language to another often lose their meaning or take on an entirely different meaning."

Miss Hupy said she misses the French relaxed way of life and the beautiful sound of the French language. She feels that one of the most important benefits derived from her stay abroad was a development of a deep appreciation of America. She now appreciates many luxuries here that are not available there. For instance, it takes seven years to obtain a telephone in France. She appreciates more fully now American technical progress.

A new member, Elmer White, was inducted into the Club. The program chairman for the evening was Robert Hupy.

Michigan Farm Prices Show Dip

LANSING (AP) — The index of prices received by Michigan farmers declined 2 per cent during the month ending June 15, while nationally the index climbed 3 per cent, the Michigan Crop Reporting Service said today.

Chiefly responsible for the state's decline, it said, were prices of wholesale milk and wheat. Beef prices climbed during the period.

Michigan farmers in mid-June received 256 per cent of the 1910-14 price average, up 5 per cent from the same period a year ago, the service said.

Tiger Tales

Jerry Lumpe played third base for the Tigers Friday night in the 5-4 victory over Boston.
He replaced Don Wert, who has an injured thigh.

Lumpe had one of his better nights, collecting three hits and driving in a run.

"But I never felt they'd tie us," he said of Boston's ninth-inning rally. "Two out, no one on. I was almost heading for the dugout. But that's the way this crazy game is."

Norm Cash was thrown out at the plate in the ninth, trying to score on Mickey Stanley's grounder. He put his shoulder down in approved football fashion and bowled John Wyatt out of the way, but the Boston catcher held onto the ball.

"I wasn't aiming to hurt anybody," drawled the Texan. "But I was out dead. I tried to knock the ball out of his hand, but it didn't work."

With five straight victories and a slump apparently out of the way, the Tigers are optimistic about their pennant chances.
"I think we've got a real good shot at it," Dick McAuliffe said.
"If we can just keep win-ing," Ray Oyler chimed in.

More people get more news from newspapers than all other sources combined.
